

Just Lookin' Gallery

Celebrate the World of Black Art - July 2010

This Weekend

"In My Mind's Eye"

The art of Margaret Warfield

July 17 - August 8

We were thrilled when Margaret agreed to make a rare gallery appearance, it is her first show ever in the DC area.

Meet Margaret July 17 - 18

1:00 to 6:00 PM

The word effervescent comes into mind when one views Margaret Warfield's work. Vibrant colors and fluid movement are the hallmark of her acrylic paintings. Her figures dance off the canvas clothed in pulsating fabrics imbued with African symbolism. Over thirty of her original paintings and drawings will be on exhibit at Just Lookin' Gallery July 17 through August 8.

With a Bachelor of Science degree in Clothing and Textiles from Tennessee State University, Warfield spent years in the corporate world before turning to art full time in 1982. Her work has been exhibited at Clark Atlanta University and Morehouse College, Atlanta, GA; the Harriet Tubman Museum, Macon, GA; Walt Disney World, Lake Buena Vista, FL; The Southern Bell Building, Atlanta, GA; the National Black Fine Art Show, NY and Union Station, Washington, D.C.

Around the Gallery

New pieces have been arriving faster than we can catalog them and get them up on the site!

❖ Pat Kabore is paying homage to jazz greats in an on-going series - "Yardbird's Flight" (left) is one of my favorites.

❖ Russell Lewis (he will be here for a show in August) just sent some wonderfully textured work including "Spiritual Ecstasy" at right.

❖ Don't miss "Chasing Rainbows" the art of Louis Delsarte at Hammonds House Museum if you are in the Atlanta area. It runs through September 12.

❖ Sonia Sadler's paintings always brighten my day. I love "The Swing" (lower right.)
