Celebrate the World of Black Art

Early Fall 2010

Art News

- ❖ We were saddened by the news of Vernette Honeywood's passing. When we first got into the gallery business 20 years ago, many folks talked about starting to collect after seeing her work on The Cosby Show.
- ❖ Catalog for the Swann October 7th African American fine art auction is now online. A great color woodcut by James Lesesne Wells is just one of the diverse offerings. View the catalog. Pre-auction catalog price estimates have created an exciting dialog on Black Art in America.
- ❖ Had a great time at the Driskell Center for the opening of "Embodied: Black Identities in American Art from the Yale University Art Gallery." This is just one of the exciting shows they have planned this season.
